The city is in a dire economic situation. As a leader in the city, I will place in escrow a portion of my salary and I will encourage other City Council members to do the same and use it to pay off city debt – same for benefit s including health.

Property tax needs not only to be lower, it needs to be reapportioned. Only tax the land for its value not property improvements.

Unleash the entrepreneurial spirit of Baltimoreans. Roll back/eliminate regulations and licensing that make it prohibitive for the small capital entrepreneur.

In the last 45 years, Baltimore has lost population by roughly 40%. We certainly don't need any more police. We need to encourage and empower Baltimoreans to care for their own safety and security as a community.

Baltimore deserves better.

It's time for a change.
